Standard Operating Procedure for Internship for MLIS Programme

Introduction

MLIS aims to produce professionals who can be appointed in libraries and information centres in junior and middle-level positions. With time and after gaining experience they move further up in position. They can also be self-employed providing information based services and products, even open their own start-ups. Students can be introduced and exposed to work culture, routines, and practices by placing them as interns in different working environments. The internship has also been stressed in the New Education Policy. It also directs to have a component of practical in all the courses. Internship will expose the students to translating their learning into work/job and also consolidate their practical learning in the LIS School by doing it during an internship for providing services and designing information products. It is necessary to introduce the student to the concept and need for an internship. S/he needs to be sensitised to the need, objectives, and process of an internship. The broad SOP for this can be as follows:

Standard Operating Procedure

The SOP has been designed to guide all those who are involved in the internship programme. The SOP provides step-by-step instructions and guidelines for the students/interns as well as Regional Centers (RCs), Training Supervisors as per the needs of the course curriculum.

1. SOP for Internship

- a) RC will apprise the students about the internship modalities, guidelines, workbook writing, and assessment mechanisms.
- b) Students will be attached to a Library and Information Centre (LIC) at a particular city/town for undertaking the internship. Students will perform the activities step by step as given in respect of professional in-house operations of the library.
- c) The internship schedules will be informed by RC. RC will attach the students to different LICs and put the information on the website of the Regional Center. Contact detail of the person in the LIC will also be displayed on the website of the RC.
- d) The selection of a LIC can be made by the learners on their own also (as per the criteria given in the internship SOP/handbook). In such a case they must inform the RC about the LIC. The learners can seek the support of RC for reference letters (if required). The RCs are expected to confirm the suitability of the LIC or training supervisor where the learner has been placed.
- e) The LIC should provide a training supervisor to provide the intern with suitable guidance/instruction that will be handled by the intern under his/her supervision. To the extent possible the LIC may try to provide the learner with a diverse working environment. The training supervisor will evaluate the intern on the basis of his/her sincerity and professional competence, on the basis of assessment (taking of assigned work, examination of work, interview, etc.)

- f) If the learners face any difficulties/ problems/conflicts at the LIC, the same may be reported to the RC. The RC may then discuss the matter with the learner as well as the supervisor in the LIC and try to sort out the problem. If any LIC selected initially does not provide the needed exposure to learners, the same can be given up and another similar LIC may be selected in place of it. The internship is to be carried out by a student in only one LIC.
- g) Working or sponsored candidates of the Library and Information Centre may/will fulfill the criteria of internship in their respective organisation subject to the fulfillment of other formalities.
- h) Intern will perform the activities as given in the workbook for a minimum of 5 HOURS a day, Five DAYS a week, for a period of ONE MONTH, excluding holidays to be worked for completing the internship. The student has to complete 100 hours of training during the internship.
- i) During the course of the internship, the intern is expected to regularly interact and report about the work done by him/ her to the training supervisor, who in turn will discuss the cases with the learner and clarify any doubts in the learner's mind. The report pertaining to the work done is to be corrected by the training supervisor. The training supervisor is expected to evaluate the learner on the basis of the workbook, a report written, work done by the intern, and the overall understanding of the intern.
- j) The learners will learn and acquire skills and professional acumen from under-trained practitioners in the concerned setting. There will be one-to-one supervision and the intern will be closely supervised by the training supervisor who will give them feedback about their performance.
- k) The intern will maintain and complete a workbook based on the work performed during the training. It will be authenticated with remarks by the internship supervisor about his/her performance during the internship.

2. Requirements for the Training Host/Organisation

- a) The interns shall be provided the internship opportunity in Public Libraries under various Ministries (RRRLF, National Library, DPL, libraries under CSIR ICAR, DRDO) educational and research institutions recognised by the government regulators (UGC/AICTE/MCI/RCI/ PCI/BCI/CoE, etc.), Institution of National Importance (IITs, IIITs, NITs, IIMs, IARI, etc.), organisations registered under the Societies Act, etc.

The first step while working on a term paper is to decide an area which depends on your interest and its relevance. Scope, recency, issues in the field, are some points that help to decide the relevance of the topic chosen for the term paper. You may read recent articles in well known journals to decide the topic of the term paper. Once the topic is chosen, the title needs to be formulated depending on the resources available in terms of level of work, and its appropriateness. You may think of a draft title to be finalised later after due deliberations.

The next step is to prepare a draft synopsis of the paper. The first step while working on the synopsis is to have a conceptual clarity of the topic. Please refer to classic text books, encyclopaedia and other relevant sources of literature for background information about the topic. After reading the sources you may have clarity of the themes and sub themes and also be able to map them. Later you may think of the problem on which you intend to work and write the statement of the problem. Then a decision on the objectives, scope, methodology and analysis has to be taken. You may undertake a study where you need to do a field/library survey or a literature survey. It depends on your interest, competence and resources to decide which one to undertake. All these steps and decisions will help you to prepare a synopsis. The synopsis is like a guide to your work. It will help you to undertake and progress in your work to write the term paper. Once the work is done as per the synopsis, it has to be reported as a paper.

The format of structure of the paper should tentatively be on the following lines:

1. Abstract- Please give an abstract of your term paper in about 200 words
2. Introduction- This should provide a background to the work and the topic undertaken by you. Hence, you need to introduce the concept of 'term paper' as well as the topic of the term paper.
3. Statement of the Problem- In continuation to the introduction, statement of the problem should zero down and focus on the need to study the present problem/area of the study. This should justify the reason for taking up the topic for study and present a term paper on it.

4. Research Questions- While undertaking a study you wish to find answers of some questions/problems that you have in mind. Such statements should be stated as questions here.
5. Objectives- Every work is undertaken with some aims and objectives, so is the term paper. They should be clearly mentioned in small steps moving from general to particular. State the objectives as clear and crisp steps that are achievable.
6. Methodology- In case of a literature based study indicate the method of literature collection. In the case of a field study indicate the data collection in terms of population, sample and sampling, data analysis.
7. Presentation/Results- This would include the presentation of data analysis/literature analysis and findings. It would include diagrams, graphs, images and tables.
8. Conclusion and Suggestions- The paper should follow with a conclusion that should highlight the areas that have been covered and those that have not been studied and need more research.
9. References and Bibliography- References need to be provided in-text as citations. Follow APA standard

You may prepare the term paper of about 5,000 words. Please note that your paper will be checked for plagiarism at the time of evaluation. It should not exceed a limit of 10%.
